Scholarships Program!

SCHOLARSHIPS PROGRAM

Purpose: To encourage the musical growth of students in grades 7-12 through private lessons, summer camps and programs, or to support students in beginning a college major in music. Scholarships are awarded to both middle school and high school students.

All students grades 7-12 of DMC members in good standing are eligible. Scholarships may be used for applied lessons, music camps and programs, or for college music courses in the case of students pursuing a major in music. Eligibility requirements are laid out in our Yearbook. Scholarships are funded through donations and by the Dayton Music Club Endowment Fund.

RENEWAL MEMBERSHIPS:

APRIL 1 – JUNE 30, 2022, PLEASE REMIT $50

- Member will be listed in yearbook; member's students will be eligible to participate in the 2022 Junior Honors program and the 2023 Youth Scholarship Auditions.
- If you are the counselor for an OFMC Federated Junior Music Club, please provide the name of the junior club for inclusion in the Dayton Music Club yearbook listing: _____

JULY 1 – NOVEMBER 15, 2022, PLEASE REMIT $60

NOVEMBER 16 – DECEMBER 15, 2022, PLEASE REMIT $75

- Due to printing deadlines, member will NOT be listed in yearbook after July 1.

JUNIOR MUSIC FESTIVAL PARTICIPATION:

To participate in the NFMFC Junior Music Festivals, there are two membership requirements.

- The teacher must be a member of OFMC. (Membership in the DMC fulfills this requirement.)
- The teacher's students must be members of OFMC, either as members of an OFMC federated junior music club or as a Junior Special (Individual) Member.

For additional information about NFMFC Festivals and membership dues forms, please refer to the DMC Yearbook and the Festivals information page at www.ofmc.org. On-time dues payment deadline for teachers (Senior level) is November 1, 2022, and for students (Junior level) is October 1, 2022. In compliance with OFMC guidelines, teachers and students paying after December 1, 2022, will not be eligible for 2023 NFMFC Festival participation.
