Who is eligible to audition for a scholarship? Please carefully read the following rules and instructions to make sure you are eligible to apply.

Any Student who:

1. is in grades 7-12 at the time of the application.
2. studies the instrument primarily with a qualified teacher (see reverse).
3. plans to use the scholarship
  - a. to pay for lessons with same teacher and/or to attend a summer camp or program on this instrument, and/or
  - b. to attend college as a music major next fall.
4. is available to perform in one or both performances listed above.

Please email scholarships@daytonmusicclub.org if you have any other questions.

Qualified Teacher:

1. is the primary teacher of the student on this instrument.
2. has paid membership dues to the Dayton Music Club by June 30, 2022.

How to apply for an audition:

If you meet the requirements and wish to audition for a scholarship, please contact your teacher to request the link to the online application form. Your teacher may contact the auditions committee by email (scholarships@daytonmusicclub.org) to get the link.

We can support organ solo but not piano concerto this year.

Application deadline is Thursday February 24, 2023, 11:59 PM

What do I prepare for the audition?

You will be asked to perform two pieces of music (contrasting styles, similar difficulty level, less than 10 minutes total) for two judges. You must provide an original copy of your music for the judges (no illegal copies, please).

The music is to be performed as follows:

1. Piano, voice, strings, harp, guitar, percussion: both pieces played by memory.
2. Woodwinds and brass: one piece by memory, second piece may use music (legal copies only).
3. Organ solo: no memorization required.

Other details for the audition will be provided in the email along with assigned warm up and audition times.

Audition results and invitations for those selected to play in recitals will be emailed to the parent(s) and teacher of the student by March 10th, 2023.
