Other rules:

- Solos must be performed by memory.
- Ensembles may use music.
- We are unable to accommodate organ solo or piano concerto this year.
- Selected music may be a single piece/movement, or a suite of pieces customarily performed together.
- Total performance time of the piece/movement/suite of pieces must be less than 8 minutes.
- If selected, piece/movement/suite of pieces must be performed in recital in the same form as auditioned (no additions, cuts, or other changes to the piece after the audition).
- If the piece requires an accompanist, the same accompanist must play for both the audition and the performance (an exception will be made for severe illness/emergency).
- We ask that student and parent(s) sign a media release so the performance can be streamed online and/or recorded, and the name of the student can be published.

How to apply for an audition time:

- Teacher requests the link to the online application by email:
jshoup@thepianoprepschool.com
Teachers may send a maximum of three students to this audition.
- The online application (teacher or student may fill out) will ask for the title of composition including opus number, composer with birth and death years, as well as the performance time of your piece/movement/suite of pieces in minutes:seconds. Student and parent contact information will also be included.
- Ensemble members each apply separately.

Application deadline is Saturday, November 11, 2023, 12:00 pm (noon)

You will be notified by email of your audition time and audition procedures.

If you have not received an email by Wednesday, November 15, please have your teacher phone Jennifer Shoup at the Piano Preparatory School (phone number is in the DMC yearbook).

Please contact jshoup@thepianoprepschool.com with any other questions.
